

TODD KANDARIS: Now, I think the situation we've got here is, you're right, it's a do or die situation because if we walk away from this and we don't have any effectual change as a result, then, then we might as well just give up. We're done. We're done.

If we don't do something now we're done because we basically illustrated that we will do

